Shop Til You Drop

Shelby County has great shopping experiences to offer every visitor! Whether you have a love for antiques, quaint gift shops or new trendy boutiques, you will find just the perfect gift. We have shopping to make anyone visiting Shelby County happy!

Alabaster

In Alabaster you will find a variety of large name retailers at the new Alabaster Promenade located just off Interstate 65 (Exit 238 Alabaster/Saginaw). For the one-stop shopper, you could find everything you need at these large retail stores.

Visit www.cityofalabaster.com for more information.

280 Corridor

Just off Highway 280 you will find a great variety of shopping. There are many large retailers, as well as quaint boutiques along the Highway 280 Corridor. As you continue going south you will find many specialty shops at the Villages at Lee Branch.

Calera

In downtown Calera you will find that there is a wide variety of shopping. Calera has a great department store and you could find most anything you need. For specialty children's clothes you'll find just what you need in Calera. To add a personal touch to any gift item, visit the monogramming and embroidery shop. The antique lover is sure to find treasures at Calera's great auction and antiques store. Before you finish your shopping in Calera you should visit the award winning florist for that perfect arrangement or home décor item.
